

CANADIANS ARE FEARFUL OF THE FUTURE

Profess Alarm Over Bennett's Menacing Resolution to Annex the Dominion and Clark's Reference to the Same Subject.

CHARGE TRICKERY TO YANKEES

Opponents of Reciprocity Trade Agreement Seize Upon Bennett's Resolution and Clark's Speech to Combat Ratification by Parliament. Accuse President Taft of Framing Document as Means of Furthering Own Political Advancement.

Ottawa, Feb. 17.—Congressman Bennett's annexation resolution, following closely upon the heels of Champ Clark's reference to the same subject, has aroused the opponents of reciprocity in and out of parliament to the highest pitch of excitement that they have yet enjoyed.

The anti-American sentiment is showing itself in many amusing ways. An American theatrical company is using some American flags in "The Jolly Bachelors" at the Princess theater in Montreal, and got the tip from an anti-reciprocity newspaper to remove the offensive colors. One leading Canadian paper prints pictures of the parliament buildings here with American flags flying from them. Congressmen Clark and Bennett are the popular heroes of the hour with the opposition here.

Mr. Armstrong, Conservative member, speaking in the house of commons, said: "In a few weeks the destiny of Canada will be fixed."

After quoting Champ Clark's reference to his desire for annexation, he said that everything a nation needs is found in the British empire, and that the United States had "precious few raw materials left."

British Empire Complete.

"Why is President Taft going up and down the country gaining political capital?" he continued. "President Taft was a defeated man until he closed this agreement. He can be re-elected on this alone. Our men have been humiliated again by Yankee diplomacy. Reciprocity will not be continued one day longer than the Yankee thinks it is benefiting him. The cars which carry wheat south will not come back empty. The officers of every bank in Canada, with one exception, have stated that they are utterly opposed to this treaty. You would enrich the United States farmer by reciprocity."

"In 1776 the United States objected to the policy of taxation being framed in London. But Canada goes now to Washington to arrange her tariff. This is the first step toward the dismemberment of the British empire. As a people we are only emerging from childhood, so let us leave well enough alone. The opposition will do its duty. It will stand to its guns and drive the present government, the enemies of Canada, out of power."

PROPOSES ANNEXATION

Representative Bennett Believes It Is Better Than Reciprocity.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Representative Bennett of New York introduced a resolution in the house, proposing the immediate annexation of Canada to the United States. The text of the resolution follows:

"That the president be requested to commence and continue negotiations with the British government to secure the annexation of the Dominion of Canada to the United States."

Bennett declared that he introduced the resolution purely on his own initiative, but he said: "Annexation of Canada to the United States will have to come some time. It might as well be now."

Bennett declared that his resolution was the natural outcome and followed logically the reciprocity agreement passed by the house Tuesday night. He was against the bill and explained why he favored annexation, while opposing reciprocity. Members generally believe that the Bennett resolution was designed by him to defeat the purpose of the agreement. It was expected to arouse another storm of protest in England.

Don't Chew Much Wheat.

"The reciprocity agreement places wheat on the free list," said Bennett, "and leaves a duty on flour. I come from a city district, where they don't chew much wheat, but they do consume some flour. When the people find out the real terms of the agreement they will be dissatisfied."

"It places cattle on the free list and leaves a duty on beef, the product used by the ultimate consumer. When the details of this agreement become fully apparent each community will be dissatisfied."

"But with Canada annexed to the United States everything would be free. The tariff protection which now surrounds the United States would be moved up the Atlantic and Pacific coasts and all the benefits and burdens will be equally distributed throughout the new big country."

Found Dead In Field

Man Falls Face Down In Mudhole and Suffocates.

Akron, O., Feb. 17.—The body of William David Schaaf, 62, night watchman at the farm of O. C. Barber, multi-millionaire match king, was found in a 50-acre wheat field, half buried in mud.

For 15 feet around the body the ground was torn up, and the clenched fists and set jaws told plainly of Schaaf's struggle against death. A lantern was found near by and it is the supposition that he lost his way while crossing the field while on his way to work. He became bewildered and wandered into the mudhole, where he stuck. His efforts to free himself exhausted him, it is believed. He fell face downward in the mud and was suffocated.

Plans Are Already Under Way For King George's Coronation

KING GEORGE V. will be crowned June 22, and already preparations for the ceremonies are under way, and the spring social season is to be unusually gay. In addition to the two state dinner parties in connection with the coronation, at which all the royal and distinguished guests will be entertained, King George will give a number of private dinners at Buckingham palace to his more intimate friends. The London police are considerably agitated over the possibility of anarchists making an outbreak during the coronation, as London will be full of monarchs and members of royal families. Heretofore the anarchists have not been molested in England under a tacit agreement that they were to perpetrate no crimes there, but were to confine their activities to other countries. The route of the royal procession on coronation day was recently made public, and speculation in seats along the way at once became active. Some rooms that command a good view of the route are held at $2,500 for the day, single seats sell at $15 each, and it is expected that competition will make it possible for a desirable window to bring $5,000. The picture above is made from the latest photograph of the man for whom all this pomp, ceremony and splendor have been devised. It shows clearly the facial expression of England's titular ruler.

TROUBLE BREWING FOR CELESTIALS

Alleged Violations of Russo-Chinese Treaties Causes Czar of Russia to Order a Demonstration on the Frontier.

WILL USE MILITARY FORCE

State Department at Washington Notified That There Will Be Something Doing in China Within Short Time — Secretary Knox Believes Russian Government a Trifle Hasty and May Urge Arbitration as Means of Settling Dispute.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The state department has been advised by the Russian government of its intention to make a military demonstration against China.

The details of the proposed movement have not been received. The Russian government promises to send further information on the subject to the department as soon as possible.

The causes for the warlike attitude of Russia are only known here in a general way. Thus far China has not appealed to the United States for assistance against the Russian movement.

The attitude of Russia has caused some surprise in Washington, as it is felt among officers of the state department that the Russian government is taking advantage of the disturbed internal conditions in China to force an issue over the alleged stubborn attitude of China in regard to the pending Russo-Chinese questions. Among some officials of the state department it is thought that it would be more generous and magnanimous on the part of Russia to delay a military demonstration until China has had an opportunity to cope with the famine and plague situations, which are still in a serious stage and are causing the officials of the Peking government much concern.

Arbitration Suggested.

Officers of the state department are inclined to believe that the pending disputes could be arbitrated by the Hague court with entire satisfaction to both governments. An appeal to arbitration, they explain, would be more satisfactory in clearing up the outstanding difficulties than a military demonstration. Usually when threatened by a foreign government China appeals to the United States and Great Britain for assistance. In the present crisis no word has been received from Peking, although the Chinese side of the dispute will probably be laid before the state department in the next few days.

The general expectation here is that after full details have been obtained Secretary Knox will lend his friendly assistance of the United States to China in the present crisis. He may go so far as to suggest to Russia that it would be advisable to settle her disputes with China by submission to a court of arbitration rather than by military force.

It is said there are about nine or ten grounds of controversy between the two governments. The principal contention raised by Russia is that China has violated the treaty of 1881 by preventing Russian merchants from selling tea within the Chinese frontiers and in refusing to admit Russian consuls to certain cities.

Five Burned In Fire At Cleveland

Wing of Hotel Euclid Is Entirely Destroyed.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 17.—Five women were seriously burned when fire drove 150 guests out of the west wing of the Euclid hotel. The prompt action of Nellie May, the telephone operator in the hotel, saved the lives of all the guests in that part of the hotel. The flames could not be controlled and destroyed the wing with a loss of $50,000.

The women seriously burned are Ruth Kent of Cambridge, O.; Gertrude Wright and Miss Francis Fairfield of Salem, O.; Miss Julia Franze of Toledo and a Mrs. Margaret Kuhse.

Men and women, some scantily clad, rushed from their rooms and ran screaming through the hallways. Some dashed madly into the halls and stood huddled together. Others tried to save some of their effects from their rooms. Few got a chance to save much.

DOCTOR DEFENDS INSTITUTION

Says Death Rate Lower Than in Columbus and Tuberculosis Stories Greatly Exaggerated — Governor Harmon Accompanies Party and Tells What Has Been Done in Way of Remodeling and What He Thinks Is Best Solution of Problem.

Columbus, O., Feb. 17.—The Ohio penitentiary was visited by the members of the legislative committee that is to investigate conditions resulting from the abolition of the contract system and the advisability of remodeling the institution under present plans or the building of an entirely new prison on a site outside the city of Columbus. They were accompanied on their rounds by Governor Harmon, Adjutant General Weybrecht, Warden Jones, L. S. Neeley and Henry Richter, members of the board of managers, and Dr. J. W. Clark, prison physician. The idle house was visited and here 68 prisoners were found with nothing to do. Last week there were over 400 there. Scores of prisoners were seen at work in clearing away old buildings and working about the littered streets.

The committeemen were informed by the governor that the proposed improvements involved a total expenditure of $2,000,000, of which about $475,000 has already been appropriated. Of this last sum $250,000 has been spent in building a new dining hall and power house. The governor believes the work of improvement should continue and any farm colony or quarry be but an addition to the present institution.

Defends Central Board.

Governor Harmon told the committee he hoped to see the state and city departments soon supplied with blank books manufactured at the pen. He told of the knitting mills planned to supply all state institutions with clothing. He vigorously defended the central board plan and declared it nonsense for private manufacturers to say that state competition in some lines would destroy their business.

"I don't like the contract system," said Harmon. "But the state must compete with some manufacturers if it expects to give labor to the prisoners. I favor suspending the Wertz law until we are in shape to give all the prisoners state work."

Dr. Clark denied that tuberculosis ran riot in the pen as declared by former Assistant Attorney General Smith Bennett. He said the percentage of those afflicted with the disease was greater in Columbus than in the prison. He declared the death rate outside also greater by nearly 9 per cent.

Balk Salary Increase

House Thinks President's Secretary Is Well Compensated.

Washington, Feb. 17.—After a brief but spirited debate the house declined to agree to the senate amendment increasing the salary of the secretary to the president from $6,000 to $10,000 a year. The vote on the motion to disagree to the senate proposition was 130 to 52.

Of all the men who spoke against the senate amendment, Representative Rainey of Illinois was the most bitter. He declared that the secretary to the president had no duties that could not be performed just as well by Speaker Cannon's colored messenger, and suggested that Jack Johnson, the negro champion, or John L. Sullivan or some other active pugilist would fill the place to perfection.

ALBERT SMITH CONFESSES FORGERY

Passed Forged Check for $5 on P. W. Louderback, who is Told of it by Younger Brother, Several Days Later. Smith Claims will Square Matter. Check Drawn Against C. C. Campbell.

Albert Smith, a young fellow who is said to have served a term in the reformatory and who until recently has been employed by C. C. Campbell on the Waterloo pike, is about to get into trouble over the alleged forgery of a check for $5.00 on Mr. Campbell.

The check was cashed at Louderback's grocery, the proprietor thinking it was alright, as he had previously cashed a similar check for $2.00.

Smith's little brother told Mr. Louderback Wednesday night that the check was a forgery. Mr. Campbell when called by phone also said the check is a forgery, but pronounced the $2.00 check alright. In the meantime Mr. Louderback paid the check over to the Dahl-Millikan Co. for groceries. Mr. Louderback has not yet made a move toward prosecuting Smith, but will probably do so in the event that the matter is not promptly squared up.

Nothing concerning this affair leaked out until yesterday evening. Mr. Louderback preferring to give young Smith a chance to square the affair. He was very much surprised when Smith's younger brother came to him Wednesday night and told him that the $5.00 check he had cashed for his brother Albert Saturday night was a forgery. That the boy was telling the truth, however, Mr. Louderback was convinced, after his telephone communication with Mr. Campbell, who said that he had not paid Smith anything since giving him the $2.00 check some time ago. Mr. Campbell also says Smith has not worked for him since.

Upon the check being paid over to the Dahl-Millikan Co., it was presented to two local banks for payment and refused.

When confronted with the evidence against him Smith confessed, but agreed to make the check good. He promised to pay a part of the money to Mr. Louderback today.

The Smiths are poor people and reside near the cemetery. The Louderback grocery is situated on Columbus avenue.

QUIT CALOMEL

Thousands Are Turning from This Dangerous Drug.

A Safe Vegetable Substitute is Olive Tablets for the Liver

Dr. F. M. Edwards, a prominent Physician of Portsmouth, Ohio, has discovered a new laxative and liver toner in a combination of vegetable materials, including olive oil, which is in effect almost exactly like the old and untrustworthy calomel, except that there are none of the bad after effects of calomel.

Dr. Edwards has long been a foe of calomel, though he recognized its value along with its dangers.

His distrust of the uncertain drug eventually started him years ago towards experiments with the view of discovering a substitute, and he is today in possession of the long-sought-for combination, which is in the shape of a little sugar-coated olive-oil colored tablet.

The results of fifteen years' experience and practice are embodied in these marvelous little tablets.

They are called Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets and their effect on the liver has been the means of relief to many of Dr. Edwards' regular patients as well as to thousands of others who have suffered and were afraid of calomel.

They are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities.

All druggists sell them in neat vest pocket sizes at 10c and 25c.

Bachert To Build New Garage

Mr. Wilson Bachert, the well-known carriage manufacturer, is planning to erect a public garage in connection with his factory on Market street.

Within a few days the plans will be completed and work begun at once. The old buildings now on the ground are being taken away and everything put in condition for the laying of the foundation.

The new garage will be a two-story brick building, with concrete floor. It will have floor space of 42½ x 120 feet on both floors and give ample accommodations for 50 machines.

The wide open front is a feature of the new garage which will make its entrance attractive as well as convenient.

In the rear of the building will be a large repair shop and every equipment required for competent garage service.

All of the newest and most popular of the innovations in the equipping of a modern garage will be put in by Mr. Bachert and the new structure will be an added improvement to our town.

In Social Circles

Misses Margaret, Weller, Lemonda and Chloé Brock gave a delightful farewell party last evening for Miss Grace Epperson, who leaves next week for Cleveland to enter the hospital for a course in trained nursing.

In a guessing contest Mrs. Clara Snider won the prize.

Regret over Miss Epperson's departure was expressed in a pretty poem written by Miss Lamonda and in a composite toast by the young men.

Delicious refreshments were served and everyone had a good time.

Thirty young people were present.

The Millwood Kensington club were indebted to Mrs. Frank Flee and daughter, Miss Mable for pleasurable entertainment yesterday afternoon.

The social features and tempting luncheon served were much enjoyed.

SIEBERN-ELLIOTT

A wedding of much interest in this community took place Thursday evening at 5:30, when Mr. Charles Siebern and Miss Dora Elliott were married by Rev. T. W. Locke, at Grace parsonage.

Both young people belong to well known Fayette county families, the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Siebern, of the Snowhill pike, and the bride, the daughter of Mrs. Jane Elliott, formerly of the Rockbridge road, now living near Greenfield.

The bride, who is an exceedingly pretty girl, was wearing a handsome gown of grey silk, with trimming of silver over lace, and large picture hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Siebern went at once to the home of Mr. Siebern's parents, where they will remain until Tuesday, when they leave for Catlett, Va. near which place, Mr. Siebern expects to engage in farming.

Many friends in town and county, while extending all good wishes, regret their removal.

Today Mrs. Jane Elliott is giving a family dinner for her daughter at her home near Greenfield. The guests include besides the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Wert Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pope.

FUNERAL OF MRS.

MARY MILLIKAN.

A large number of friends attended the funeral services of Mrs. Mary B. Millikan, held at Grace church Thursday afternoon at two o'clock.

Rev. T. W. Locke conducted a beautiful service, opening with the reading of the hymn, "Jesus Lover of My Soul."

After the Scriptures the pastor read the following memoir:

Mary Banker Millikan, daughter of John and Hannah Robinson, was born in Ross county, Ohio, September 25, 1823, and departed this life at Washington C. H., Ohio, February 14, 1911, aged 87 years, 4 months and 19 days.

She was united in marriage with Adley Bostwick December 24, 1846. Two sons were born to this union, John R. and Fred I. Bostwick. On April 4, 1864, she was joined in marriage to William Millikan, who preceded her in death a little over five years ago.

The deceased leaves to mourn their loss the two sons mentioned, with two grand-children, Mary A. Bostwick and Mrs. D. C. Bennett, and two great-grandchildren, Clement P. and H. Bostwick Bennett.

Aunt Mary, as she was so familiarly known to us all, had been a resident of Washington C. H. for over 45 years, and her identification with Grace Methodist Episcopal church reaches back as far. She became a Christian early in life and remained a faithful follower of the Master whose cause she ardently espoused until God's call summoned her home.

Rev. Locke supplemented the memoir by a few remarks, dwelling upon Mrs. Millikan's ripe old age, her unusual vitality and the many remarkable experiences through which she had passed in her 87 years, years of such phenomenal development in the world.

The pastor said that the deceased had often expressed to him her great desire that the words of Scripture, "She hath done what she could," might be her meed of reward in the other world, and that the spirit of her life was to win such approval.

The services closed with reading the hymn, "Abide With Me."

Among a profusion of beautiful flowers which heaped the casket were a pillow of lilies and carnations from the Columbus Dispatch, a casket spray of carnations from the W. C. T. U. and spray from Mrs. Higgins' boarding house of Columbus, where one of the sons, Mr. Fred Bostwick, boards.

A number of relatives and friends drove to the cemetery for the interment in the family lot.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Edward Banker and Elmer Banker, of Middletown; Messrs. Ward Leavell and Wm. Maddox, of Mt. Sterling; Mr. J. W. Logan of Waverly, and Mr. Harry Rodecker, of this city.

Among relatives here from a distance were the son, Mr. Fred Bostwick and wife, of Columbus; Ed Banker, Middletown, O.; Elmer Banker, Middletown, O.; Mary Prather, Chillicothe, O.; Mrs. Belle Eggleston, Chillicothe, O.; Annette Eggleston, Chillicothe, O.; Mrs. Eliza Terry Madison, Mills, O.; Stella Miller, Mt.

INTRUDER ANGERS MILK TRUST

The milk trust at Chillicothe, which has been holding up the people for some time and forcing them to pay 10c per quart for milk, is just now "fighting mad" because a new milk dealer has appeared on the scene and is selling milk below the trust prices. The Chillicothe Gazette this morning says:

"It is rumored that a milk war is on the tapis in Chillicothe. Some daring individual has really consented and is selling milk for less than ten cents a quart, and the other milk men are up in arms about it."

It is said that this dealer has failed to take out the proper city license or permit, and that the other dealers have combined to appeal to the authorities to make him stop selling milk altogether.

It is suggested that this individual, whoever he may be, can easily go ahead selling milk for a long suffering public would be willing to help pay his license fee or permit charge if he only keeps at it.

It is also suggested that this individual dealer, if he is harassed, go before the coming grand jury, or not wait until then, but proceed at once to go after those who harass him under the Valentine anti-trust law, which punishes those who combine in restraint of trade.

Chillicothe patrons, not only of milk dealers, but of a great many other necessities, are getting very tired of being held up, short-weighted and short-measured.

The grand juries in other cities have acted on this, notably in Toledo, where the ice dealers were made to come to time.

Meanwhile it is well to remember that Detroit only pays seven cents a quart for milk, and Circleville people buy it for six cents.

BURIAL OF EX-MAYOR WRIGHT OF LEESBURG

Erecting Modern Slaughter House

If weather conditions are favorable the slaughter house, begun by D. H. Barchet on the Chillicothe pike, a mile south of town, last November, will be completed by the first of May.

When completed this slaughter house will be a genuine packing house, on a small scale, there being nothing like it nearer than Chillicothe. It will cover a long-left need in this vicinity.

The new slaughter house is being built along the most approved and modern ideas, with all improvements, and cold storage plant attached.

It is two stories, 40x45 feet on both floors and is concrete throughout. The machinery equipment will be extensive including machinery for curing meats and the making of sausage. The machinery will be installed by outside firms. Rhodes & Bell are the contractors.

Mr. Barchet expects to engage in his present retail business and also in the wholesale business extensively, with a view of covering this territory fully in all packing house lines.

YOUNG COLORED GIRL IN CLUTCHES OF LAW

Stole Unset Diamond and was Caught when She Applied at Jewelry Store to Have it Set---Denied and then Confessed---Sent to Girls' Home.

This morning sixteen-year-old Myrtle Robinson (colored) was arraigned before Judge Patton, of the Probate court, for stealing a diamond ring, belonging to Miss Helen Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Harper.

About two weeks ago Miss Helen came home from school to find the diamond with which her ring was set, missing. The stone had been given to her by her grandfather, the late Judge Harper, making the loss a double one. All search for the diamond proved unavailing and it was given up for lost by every one but Mrs. Harper.

She became suspicious of this young colored girl, Myrtle Robinson, who was working for her. Several small things were found missing and when the girl took her departure a few days after the theft it gave color to the suspicions.

Mrs. Harper notified Chief Devaney, who told her to say nothing but to enquire of the jeweler whether an unset diamond had been left with them for setting.

Not having fully recovered from an attack of bronchitis, Mrs. Harper suffered a relapse and, Mr. Harper being out of town, it was Wednesday before she felt equal to calling the jeweler's attention to the matter.

The first jeweler she called answered that a diamond had been left with him for setting the early part of the week. Mrs. Harper gave him the girl's name which he found the same as that written on the slip with the stone.

Chief Devaney was at once informed and sent for the girl, who had gone to work for Mrs. J. W. Rothrock. She at first denied taking the ring and held to her denial for some time. The chief finally, after trying various means for an hour and a half secured from her the confession that she had stolen the diamond. He had her sign a written confession to this effect and also an order to Mrs. Harper for the stone at the jeweler's. Chief Devaney after securing Mrs. Harper's order, returned the diamond to its owner.

The sheriff took the Robinson girl in custody until her trial.

The crime is really a penitentiary offense, but owing to the youth of the culprit, she was taken before the Probate Judge. She claims to be almost eighteen, but her mother says she is only sixteen. The officer is inclined to believe the mother, as the girl is very small and young looking.

When she visited the jeweler with the diamond her mother was with her.

Her hearing before Judge Patton resulted in her being ordered committed to the Girls' Industrial Home at Delaware.

OWNERSHIP OF MUFF TROUBLING COURT

Charge of Larceny Preferred Against Miss Rosa Hawk by Miss Millie Hodge
Being Aired in Justice Craig's Court.
Crowd so Large Common Pleas Courtroom is Used.

Withstanding the pleas of plaintiff workers in the Harmony on Palmer pike the sensational of the case filed by Miss Millie Hodge against Miss Rosa Hawk before Justice T. N. Craig, began this morning.
The plaintiff in this interesting affair is represented by Attorney Lee Rogers and the defense by Attorney
J. T. Oatneal.
Early in the morning visitors and more than thirty witnesses began streaming into Justice Craig's courtroom. Long before the case was called the rooms and hallway were filled with spectators and it was found necessary to move over to the Common Pleas court room to accommodate the crowd.
The trouble has all been occasioned
by the disappearance of a fur muff valued at $3.50. Previous to the case of Thursday, February 9, the muffs in the case were good and quite chummy.
That night they attended church
together and sat in the same seat in the rear. Both had recently joined the church and on the evening mentioned both went to the front, leaving their muffs lying on the seat.
According to the story it seems that on the return of Miss Hawk to the courtroom two muffs were there, but one was old one. She gathered up the one she took to be her own and went home.

A short time afterward Miss Hodge is said to have returned to the seat
and found the old muff awaiting her.
Now the point for the court to settle is whether Miss Hawk took Miss Hodge's muff or whether some one else substituted the old muff for it.
Following the disappearance of the muff Miss Hodge came to this city and filed an affidavit with Justice Craig accusing Miss Hawk of the theft of her muff.
A warrant and search warrant was placed in the hands of special constable J. T. Oatneal, Friday night, February 10, and he went to the Hawk residence that night and got a muff, but made no arrest. The following day Miss Hawk came before the court and pled not guilty.
All efforts to head off the trial proved futile, even after one of the church workers is said to have offered to buy each girl a new muff better than their old ones, if the case be dropped.
At the opening of the trial this morning at 10:30 Mr. Oatneal was first placed on the stand, outlining his experience in securing the muff, which he accomplished without the slightest difficulty.
He was followed by Miss Hodge,
who swore positively that the muff is her own. Miss Hodge also quoted talks she had had with friends and neighbors concerning the muff, and could not be moved from her stand that she owned the troublesome muff.

After dinner Mrs. James Hodge, mother of the prosecuting witness, took the stand. She claimed she bought the muff for her daughter on December 22 last, getting it at Stutson's and paying for it $1.50.
She also identified the muff; also stated that she had recently talked with the clerk from whom she bought the muff. On cross examination Mrs.
Hodge admitted her eyes are bad,
necessitating considerable treatment;
that she bought nothing else when she got the muff; that she had not seen the muff since it disappeared
until produced as evidence. Mrs.
Hodge stated that she does not go to church and is the mother of 19 children. With her testimony the state rested.

Mr. Rogers, for defendant, at once demurred to the evidence adduced by the state on the ground that not a scintilla of evidence tending to prove the defendant guilty of larceny had been introduced by the state and he moved the court to discharge the defendant. He pronounced the attempt of the prosecution to fasten the crime of larceny upon the defendant as an utter failure. It was admitted that Miss Hawk took the muff, but that in doing so she took her own property. Messrs. Rogers and Rankin then got into an amusing wordy, but far from complimentary battle.

Mr. Rankin called the attention of the court that the state's witnesses had sworn that the muff belonged to Miss Hodge; that when it was found by the constable it was in a folding couch in the Hawk home, and added that he had further evidence that he was withholding for developments.
Mr. Rogers promptly demanded that he produce it, to which Mr. Rankin replied he would in good time and that it would make his hair stand up.
Mr. Rogers again demanded the dismissal of the case on the weak evidence adduced, calling attention to the spotless character of his client and her open conduct in taking and using the muff as her own, which robbed the larceny charge of foundation.

Just Craig overruled the motion and the defense at once began to introduce witnesses.

Before going to press L. C. Mal-low and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Frayne testified to the good character of the defendant.

Miss Hawk took the stand next.
She stated that she is 17, is the daughter of George Hawk of Glendon, that her mother has been dead 3
years, that she has three sisters, Stella, Louetta and Artie, that herself and Louetta are twins.

The muff was shown her and she testified that she fully believed it to be her own. She said it was given her together with a scarf just before Christmas by Wm. Parker, a suitor.
She testified that at the church on the 9th she took the muff from the seat and before everybody. The scarf was offered as evidence.

Mr. Parker followed Miss Hawk and identified the muff as the one he gave to Miss Hawk.

Helpful Hints on Hair Health

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness.

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also produces baldness. Never use a comb or brush belonging to some one else.
No matter how cleanly the owner may be, these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is far easier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness. Never try on anybody else's hat. Many a hatband is a resting place for microbes.

If you happen to be troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe will completely relieve these troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understanding that it will cost you nothing for the trial if it does not produce the results we claim. This remedy is called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for scalp and hair troubles, and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the results it has produced in thousands of cases.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is devised to banish dandruff, restore natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and make the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does this because it stimulates the hair follicles, destroys the germ matter, and brings about a free, healthy circulation of blood, which nourishes the hair roots, causing them to tighten and grow new hair. We want everybody who has any trouble with hair or scalp to know that Rexall
"93" Hair Tonic is the best hair tonic and restorative in existence, and no one should scoff at or doubt this statement until they have put our claims to a fair test, with the understanding that they pay us nothing for the remedy if it does not give full and complete satisfaction in every particular. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Washington

WOMEN WORKERS ON INCREASE IN OLD FRANCE

Census Figures Just Tabulated Show Interesting Facts.

PARIS, (Special)—Some remarkable figures regarding female labor in France are tabulated in the census for 1906, which has just been compiled.

In the last forty years the number of women wage-earners has nearly doubled. In that time the figures have risen from about 4,500,000 female workers to 7,750,000.

This is a 65 per cent increase, whereas the percentage of increase among male workers was only 24 per cent, the figures being formerly 19,500,000 as against the 1906 total of 13,000,000.

It is shown that in 1906 the "active population" of the country—that is to say, excluding children, women having no occupation save that of housewife, and all persons living solely on unearned incomes, pensions, etc.—numbered 29,750,000 souls, of whom less than two-thirds were men and more than one-third were women.

Agricultural pursuits accounted for 5,500,000 men and nearly 3,500,000 women.

Nearly 4,750,000 men and over 2,500,000 women were employed in trade, and 1,300,000 men and nearly 30,000 women were engaged in the liberal professions and public services. In the domestic services the women outnumbered the men in a proportion of 770,000 to 170,000.

The totals show the working population is made up of 39 per cent women to 61 per cent men. The total number of workers has risen from 15,000,000 to 20,750,000 in forty years, the proportion of workers to the total population having risen from 40 per cent to 53 per cent.

The figures which prove most conclusively, however, that people work more and are waited on in idleness less, are these: Forty years ago 1,200,000 persons were employed as domestics, valets, cooks, etc., in private houses. In 1906 less than 1,000,000 were so engaged.

Trade employment has nearly tripled and in the manufacturing and liberal professions there has been an increase of 75 per cent in the total employees.

Chic Little Frocks Under the Top Coat

Many smart little frocks of light serge, cashmere, or Henrietta have been designed for wear under the long coat of cloth or fur.

They are generally dark blue, brown, gray, green, etc., and black satin is almost invariably used as trimming, with a touch of color in the cuffs or neck finish.

One pretty model in dark blue serge was absolutely plain save for its black satin girdle, a double row of black satin buttons and loops running down the entire length of the front and a flat little collar of peacock blue silk embroidered in gold and white beads.

The Chiffon Veil.

The long chiffon veil is much affected, for street wear, this fashion being a development of the great use of these veils for automobiling. Modish brown, deep blue and electric green colored chiffons lead, together with open meshed grenadines in novel designs.

New marquisette shirtwaists in white are heavily embroidered in colors. A pretty model in white had a yoke and cuffs of dull red chiffon. These range in price from $7.50 to $22.50.

MODERN WOMEN ARE EXCELLENT ECONOMISTS

Suffragist Says They Could Run Country and Save Money.

It is a generally accepted theory in the world of men that women are not good financiers, and that deep in every woman's heart lurks the germ of extravagance ready to spring into lower the moment she has a little more than the money with which to pay the bills.

This has led to the curtailing of many a wife's allowance, and forced upon hundreds of women the humiliating necessity of asking husband or father for even the smallest sums of money needed for carfare, etc.

Truth to tell, according to statistics, women are better "managers" than men. Poorer financiers perhaps, but better economists.

Many a household is kept from a burden of debt by the careful housewife who must make one dollar do the work of two.

Who figures and calculates day after day with cheerful resignation, squeezing out of a paltry income enough for food and clothes, and the school expenses of the children, although sacrificing herself in nearly every instance.

Now Mrs. Harriet Johnston-Wood has added to this the declaration that you in government affairs women could prove themselves better economists than men.

"The latest government statistics show," said Mrs. Wood, "that in fifteen-sixteenths of all families of the United States women do all the housework, which means baking, making clothes for the family in many instances, and the cooking, washing and ironing."

"When women are so occupied with their families, they would hardly have time to be extravagant, even though it were their nature, which it is not."

"Now by reason of the fact that we are by nature and training the housekeepers of the world, isn't it most natural that we could run the government housekeeping and our municipal housekeeping much more economically than men, and far better?"

"If a man is set to the task of housekeeping he makes a fine muddle of it. How, then, should we expect him to keep the city clean?"

"What we need today in running our federal and municipal governments is an economical plan is the specialized training of employees."

"A washerwoman does not trim a hat and a baker does not make clothes. We should have educated and trained specialists for every department of public service."

"Every administration claims, in the beginning, that they are reducing expenses, yet taxes steadily increase. What becomes of the money?"

"There is enough money wasted through the gross ignorance and indifference of male officeholders and by crafters in public office to nearly run our country."

That puts a different aspect upon present conditions, doesn't it? Puts an end to the cry of the men that the extravagance of women is ruining the homes, bringing about divorces and raising the cost of living.

Of course there are extravagant women—but there are extravagant men too, lots of them, and the question of which is in the majority seems at the present time to be a mooted one.

The average man doesn't worry very much about whether he has good or bad blood, so long as it doesn't show in pimples and blotches. It is the woman who does the worrying about ancestors. — Atchison (Kan.) Globe.

WORK AS A BRIDGE TO MARRIAGE VOWS

Girls Who Accept Positions In Offices "Temporarily" Seldom Succeed.

OF THE girls in business there are but two kinds—the permanent and the temporary.

The temporary abound in great numbers. Every business man knows them. But the permanent are few and far between, and lucky the employer who succeeds in securing one, for he regards her as more precious than rubies.

A great many girls go in for office work because the preparation is usually so short. A year or maybe two in a business school is supposed to send them out into the world as initiated manipulators of the typewriter and stenography pencil or expert accountants.

It often happens in the middle classes that the daughters are expected to earn their own living, and as a general thing these same daughters have about the same thought concerning the future, that being a young Apollo with dark curly hair, melting brown eyes and a glorious feature in general.

The work they must do in order to earn their own living, therefore, is only a bridge suspended between the present and the happy cooing future, a future the central point of which is he of the dreamy brown eyes, and the background a hazy picture of a snug two-story little house, six rooms and bath, and a piano on the installment plan.

All very satisfying as a dream, but not very substantial when one has to pay one's board and buy one's clothes.

Therefore, it behooves the little girl to seek some employment which will not be too far beneath her in the social scale of life and forthwith she ties herself to a business "college" and begins preparation for office life.

"After the be-ribboned diploma has been placed in her dimpled hands the next step is to get a 'job,' and the 'college and want ads' will supply his after a while."

Then begins a toilsome time for the young worker, for, unless she can manage to work up some interest in her task, she plugs away day after day waiting anxiously for the coming of her Prince Charming; and the work suffers in consequence; so does her employer's temper.

On the other hand, there is the girl who prepares to enter the business world with the idea of climbing to the top. All else is subordinated to her ambition, and if she ever gives Prince Charming a thought it is to relegate him to the rear.

This is the kind of assistant the business man delights in. She concentrates her energies on her work to the advantage of the work, herself and her employer, and if she is patient and perseveres her reward will come sooner or later in the shape of a salary which would make hat earned by the first girl's brown-eyed darling look mighty insignificant.

Any girl can get up a sufficient amount of ambition if she but tries hard enough. And even if she has no desire to make her life work that of the office instead of the home she should, the short time she is in the office and earning her employer's dollars, strive to make good.

TO A FLOWER.

Flower in the crannied wall,
I pluck you out of the crannies,
I hold you here, root and all, in my hand,
Little flower—but if I could understand What you are, root and all, and all in all,
I should know what God and man is.
